

Recommendation Letter

October 15, 2025

To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Ms. Nan Ohmar Wai, who served as a Sales and Outreach Intern at ME GOODY by Buddy Up Co., Ltd. During her internship, Nan consistently demonstrated dedication, and a remarkable attitude toward learning and growth.

Nan played an active role in supporting our sales and outreach initiatives, contributing meaningfully to several collaborations with external partners. Her reliability, ability to work cooperatively, and commitment to her responsibilities made her a valued member of our team.

While content creation was not part of her main responsibilities, Nan also showed initiative by contributing to the development of marketing materials that complemented our sales efforts. Her creativity and adaptability allowed her to provide meaningful input beyond her assigned scope of work.

Nan approaches her work with thoughtfulness and enthusiasm, and she is always open to feedback and growth. I am confident that the skills and mindset she has developed through her internship will benefit her in any future endeavor.

Please feel free to contact me at cinye@megoody.com should you require any additional information.

Sincerely,
